Dear Pastor & church choir, Thank you so very much for coming out in the bad weather to sing the beautiful Christmas carols to me and my family. We certainly did enjoy them. You put the icing on the cake with the nice fruit basket. Many thanks! I pray you each have a Happy New Year. “Because He lives”, Lorene Hardin

Dear Will & Group, Thank you for thinking of me in such a wonderful way. The singing was a blessing too. May God continue to bless all of you. Merry Christmas and a good New Year!
In Christian Love, George H. Wilkins, Sr.

Monnie London made a contribution in memory of Glenn, Harvey & Elizabeth London.

Please pick up your poinsettias this morning and take them home with you. Thanks for donating them. They have helped so much in making our sanctuary beautiful for the Christmas season.

Next Sunday evening, January 7, we will be joining the other area churches at Hopewell for our annual Christmas singing. Please bring pick-ups and plan to stay for the fellowship time after the singing. It will begin at 6:00 pm.

The deacons will meet at 5:00 pm on Sunday, January 14.
